

100 MORE GIRLS HEAT PROSTRATES
SENT TO COUNTRY HIKING ROOKIES

Fresh Air Fund Carries Them from Tenements to Atlantic Highlands.

MAKE GLAD HEARTS RESIDENTS SHOCKED

Hills Will Furnish Two Weeks' Outing.

It's a long way from the Hills to Atlantic Highlands—pretty close to 200 miles as the crow flies. Nearly 200 miles by air line, yes; but by Fresh Air line!—that's something else again.

Either the Fresh Air line distance is much shorter—negligible, in fact—or else there must be some sort of bridge that connects the two, a flying arch that springs from the Hills to the Highlands and from the Highlands to the Hills. For there were hearts in the Highlands last night that touched hearts in the hills.

Those in the Hills were what you would call kind hearts. Those in the Highlands were what anybody could spot at once as giad hearts.

The giad hearts inhabited the bodies of the bathing suits that floated down the river.

Rookies in swimming at a distance after the hot day's hike, have been likened to various more or less poetic objects by discreetly distance keeping townsfolk.

One gentle hearted woman at Harkness, seeing them afar off in a placid stretch of the Au Sabie River, thought they looked like pond lilies; another thought they looked like penguins crouching along the shore. But to-day the good folk of Schuylar Falls had a chance to see them so close at hand that there was no difference of opinion as to what they looked like.

The Saranac River runs through the hamlet, and near the bridge in the town is the only swimming ground. Soldiers travel light on the warpath, and the bathing suits are a superfluity.

terday afternoon to be the guests of the Tribune Fresh Air Fund for the next two weeks at Eunice Home. They began to be glad about 1 o'clock, when they had obtained their city health certificates from the Tribune Fund's

All Fears Past.

Of course, they quickened their stride a bit when they were actually at the Federal penitentiary. At the time they realized that the little bar between them and their country vacations had been climbed over.

home, with doubts and fears and trouals about death certificates behind them and only the open corners of them are visible. As the men in the air braces themselves, they grow more rigid physically, they may even be able to put a little more glider still into the stride of their gliding.

So the men in the air braces look like men with leaden hearts. For the leaden hearts look below in the list of contributors to the Fresh Air Fund, for to-day, "Berkshire Fresh Air Fund, $107.00," is the first item in the list. The same time that some people in the Berkshire region said among themselves, "Let's do something again this year," the men in the air braces the men at the nightly conference, Representative Richard Olney, 24, of Massachusetts, a member of the House Committee, reached camp late last night.

A special messenger brought to the cavalry camp to-day a $500 loving cup trophy presented by the Berkshires chapter of the Bethlehem Steel Company, to be competed for in hospital practice by the student cavalry troops and to be the property of the cavalry.

Harmonicas Popular.

Despite the hardships of the hike and year to help the poor boys and girls. Fund send some good boys and girls to the hot tenements to the country."

So they set to work with a will, and yesterday sent to the fund the contribution listed. As a matter of fact they exceeded their goal of two others amounting to $167.40, so that their real kindness of heart must be measured by the sum of $574.70.

The connection between the glad hearts and the kind actions is clear. It will cost about $100 to provide the outfit for the hundred girls at the Eunice Home. This money is to be paid from the contribution of the the uncheerful monotony of army grub Company D, 6th Regiment, Lieutenant Joseph Atkins, commanding, has had enough energy to solve the problem of the problem of the problem of the application of music. Under the patronage of the commander and with Henry H. Goddard, Harvard football hero, as lender, they have organized a good band of young men, who are to swing into their steps over the rough stretches and make them forget their aches and weariness.

B. Eberlin, 242 Water Street, New York, played the first harmonica; Adam Young, 242 Water Street, New York, played the second harmonica; Campbell, 146 Midwood Street, Brooklyn, is second harmonica; R. K.

e Berkshire Fresh Air Fund. No doubt it will change the kind hearts in the Fleming, of Pittsburgh, plays the first Gave $1,400 Last Year.

The best of the whole matter is, however, that the Berkshire kind heartedness said they were through with their kindness yet, and, as last year they sent the Tribune Fund more than $1,400, to use in the work of gladdening hearts, they will probably be responsible for another hundred glad and happy June before the summer closes.

Are you ambitious to make hearts glad? Learn how from these kind hearts of the Berkshire region.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE TRIBUNE FRESH AIR FUND.
Previously acknowledged.....	$25,302.86
Berkshire Fresh Air Fund.....	707.33
Edward T. Wilkinson.....	50.00
"In memory of Mortimer".....	24.85

From a friend: Sugar Hill N. H.	2:30	the sun without any sympathies;
From a friend: Sugar Hill N. H.	2:30	But he straightened them out and
Katherine and Carolyn	2:30	made them a hell of swell little
K.	2:30	compane.
Miss Isabella F. Cummings	10:30	Chorus.
Mary H. Finch	10:30	"Fall in, fall in, fall in promptly!
In answer to E. C. C.	10:30	Fall in, fall in, fall in promptly!
E. M. Waller	10:30	Fall in, fall in, fall in promptly!
Miss Norma E. Van Syckle	10:30	Keep your hands down, inspecting
Miss W. E. Cummings	10:30
Miss Harriet B. Clark	10:30
James H. Dawson	10:30

J. R. Houseman	0.09	arms!
In memory of G. L. Allen	5.00	Dismissa, Company D!"
In memory of W. N. Allen	5.00	The second verse is just like that,
Mrs. E. W.	5.00	only more so.
Mrs. Kelleher	4.00
From two little girls, Betty McAllan and	3.00
Fairfax Nye	3.00
E. W.	4.00
Barton Perita Holman	4.00

DUEL.

E. W. Edward C. Smith H. E. R.

G. A. Hill	50
Davidson, Edna C.	50
Pratt, A. Rink	50
Goetz, Richard	50
Babbie H.	50
Howard, Helen C. Wilson, Lloyd O.	50
George H. Crazz	50
J. L. White	50
Smith, Frederick H.	50
Total, August 4	$24,281.83

Contributions preferably by check or money order, should be sent to Tribune Press Agency, The Tribune, New York.

EDWARD C. DAVIDSON, PATENT LAWYER, DIES

DAVIDSON—At Bayhead, N. J., August 4, Edward Crawford Davidson, son of the late Major Delosizer Davidson and Henrietta Maria Crawford, in the 39th year of his age. Services at his residence, 587 North Broad st., Elizabeth, N. J., Monday, August 7, at 4 o'clock. Please omit flowers.

Overwork and Worry Over Litigation Causes of Death.
Bayhead, N. J., Aug. 4.—Edward
Crawford Davidson, a prominent patent attorney, 20 Church Street lawyer, with offices at 30 Church Street, Manhattan, and who had practised law in New York since 1888, died at his home here to day, aged sixty.

His death was mainly due to overwork and anxiety caused by his long fight in the courts to uphold the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

brated Goodwin film patent, which was owned by his client, the Anasco Company, of Binghamton, N. Y. After almost twelve years of litigation over that and dependent patents, the Eastman Kodak Company was obliged to make a settlement two years ago. Immediately after the settlement Mr. Davidson was taken ill. He came of distinguished Maryland and Virginia ancestry. At the age of sixteen he entered the law office of the late William H. Baldwin, then an authority on telephone patents. Later he became a partner in the firm of Baldwin, Davidson & Wright, in New York, but later practised alone.

For the last twenty years he had lived at 457 North Broad Street, Elizabeth, N. J.

He was born in New York city, Aug. 4, 1910, married Emily Braddick, beloved wife of the late Stephen T. Smith, aged 55 years.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Shippan Point, Stamford, Conn., on Sunday, August 6, at 2 o'clock.

Aliens Appreciate New Bureau.

Inquiries at the rate of sixty a day are handled at the office, opened four months ago in East Seventy-ninth Street, between Second and Third Avenues, by the Committee on Community Relations of the Foreign Born, according to a statement issued yesterday. The inquiry office is maintained for the benefit of newly arrived aliens who

THE WOODBLAWN CEMETERY.
1234 St. By Harlem Train and by Treble
Lots of small size for sale.
Office, 29 West 124 St., N. Y.